1260 Your letter 20th July regarding appointment of Mysore Government agent in London without more detailed information regarding extent of your purchases and scope of proposed agency it is impossible to advise usefully on location of the office or its constitution suggest D'Souza should be sent as early as possible all assistance and information that reasonably can will be given and he can then make his proposals as regards premises 48 Grosvenor Gardens is now vacant cost of 33 years lease L.16000 ground rent I.25 to which cost of renovation must be added but my stores department which attends to packing and shipment of stores is located at Lambeth and the Trade Commissioner in the City which has been found the most convenient arrangement. High Commissioner of India.
